CONTENT PRESENTATION

BrandVoice

An interview, article, infographic, or other content format crafted so that the piece acts as editorial content of the magazine. An individual solution is created for each client, combining their communication goals with the proven editorial style of Forbes articles. The aim is for the resulting content to appear natural yet attractive, thus achieving the greatest possible reach. Forbes handles the entire preparation; the advertiser has the option of three content reviews.

► EXTENT: 1–4 pages (based on the communicated content and client preference)

1/1

AdVoice

A direct content presentation by the advertiser, prepared tailor-made by Forbes magazine staff. This format is particularly suitable for presenting specific products and services. The goal is for the resulting content to deliver the maximum client message in a language and form that Forbes readers value and seek out. Preparation is handled by Forbes based on client materials; the advertiser has the option of three content reviews.

► EXTENT: 1–2 pages (based on the communicated content and client preference)

2/1

Advertorial

Text advertising provided by the client, without the company logo. The editorial staff performs only linguistic proofreading but reserves the right to edit the headline, perex, and graphic design of the article to be compatible with the style of Forbes magazine and achieve the greatest readership.

► EXTENT: 1/2–2 pages

1/1

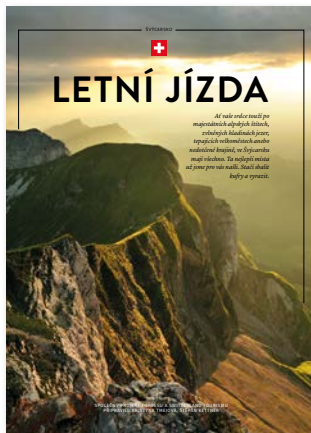

DOUBLE PAGE

► Headline: approx. 35 characters
 ► Perex: 300–400 characters
 ► Text: 5,500–6,500 characters
 ► Total: 6,000–7,000 characters including spaces, depending on the required number of photos

FULL PAGE

► Headline: approx. 35 characters
 ► Perex: 200–300 characters
 ► Text: 2,500–3,500 characters
 ► Total: 2,800–3,800 characters including spaces, depending on the required number of photos

SPECIAL PROJECTS

JOINT PROJECT/SUPPLEMENT/TIP-ON

An exclusive opportunity to present a client's area of expertise through reports, interviews, engaging articles, photographs, and illustrations, and to naturally integrate their message into editorially conceived, reader-valuable content spanning multiple pages. This format requires higher cooperation but has a significant impact on an affluent target group. It is listed in the magazine's table of contents as equivalent to editorial formats.

- EXTENT: 6–16 pages
- PRICE: On request
